SOUNDING OFF ON PORN

by lauren ozy

ARIZONA DAILY WILDCAT

Students voiced their opinions with a marker and a message board yesterday about how pornography can push the buttons of pleasure or go overboard on the boundaries of purity.

Ramadan is a time for fasting, reflection and family, but some Muslim students said they feel the monthlong fast is misunderstood because people and media outside the religion sometimes stereotype Islam as a whole.  Khaqan Skander, a pre-business sophomore and vice president of the Muslim Student Association, said Ramadan is unknown to many people.
